

Professional development for faculty: Building skills, advancing careers

All current and future faculty (postdocs, graduate students) are welcome to participate in these introductory level workshops aimed at connecting people to resources and the OHSU community of educators, learners and researchers.

Promotion and Tenure

Friday, Sept. 21, 2018 | 9 a.m. to noon | School of Nursing, room 144

- Promotion and Tenure Guidelines
- Planning for Success

Research 101

Friday, Oct. 26, 2018 | 2 to 5 p.m. | Richard Jones Hall, room 4340

- Starting a Research Project and Topics in Research Integrity and Conflict of Interest
- Leveraging Library Resources for Research
- Authorship, Technology Transfer and Business Development

Professional Growth

Friday, Nov. 16, 2018 | 9 a.m. to noon | Richard Jones Hall, room 4340

- Advocating for Yourself: Leverage Your Worth and Identify Mentors
- Developing an Educator's Portfolio

I Teach

Friday, Dec. 14, 2018 | 9 a.m. to noon | Richard Jones Hall, room 4340

- Basic Teaching Skills
- Leveraging Library Resources for Education
- What's Next?

Registration is required. Visit the Professional Development Series on Compass to register for any or all sessions. Sessions will be live-streamed for those unable to attend in person. For questions about the series or faculty development in general, contact Constance Tucker at tuckeco@ohsu.

---

Professional Development Series:
Four months,
four sessions,
a foundation
for your future
at OHSU.

Visit [www.ohsu.edu/
faculty-development](http://www.ohsu.edu/faculty-development)
for more information and resources.

