

15th Annual PROH Conference
“Dental Myths and Controversies XII”
Friday, October 26, 2018

World Trade Center – Auditorium – Bridge Level - 121 SW Salmon - Portland, OR 97204

Join us for an exciting, fast-paced morning with six speakers addressing some of those confusing and contentious myths and controversies that face us in dentistry today. Speakers will introduce their topic, identify the opposing viewpoints, review the relevant research, present their position on the topic based on their understanding of the evidence, and answer your questions. Topics and speakers are as follows:

“At what point does recession need to be referred for grafting?”

Steven Hokett, D.D.S., M.C.R., Assistant Professor, Department of Periodontology.

“What are the appropriate uses and cementation techniques for indirect esthetic materials?”

Jorge Garaicoa, D.D.S., M.S., Assistant Professor, Department of Restorative Dentistry.

“Are mini- or very short implants (<8mm) viable tooth replacements?”

Christopher Fellows, D.D.S. Assistant Professor, Department of Restorative Dentistry.

“The Opioid Epidemic? What is the problem and how is dentistry dealing with it?”

Barry Taylor, D.D.S., Assistant Professor, Department of Restorative Dentistry.

“Are there any new advances in the treatment of TMD?”

Jeffrey Nickel, D.M.D., Ph.D., Associate Professor, Department of Orthodontics.

“What is the status of antimicrobial agents and materials for treating high caries risk patients – what really works and why?”

Jens Kreth, Ph.D., Associate Professor, Department of Restorative Dentistry.
