

OHSU Library

The OHSU Library is open to everyone. Reference librarians are available Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Using Library Materials

- All journals and books can be used in the library. Photocopy machines are available.
- Library cards are available to the non-OHSU affiliated for $20-35 a year.

OHSU Library WEB Resources

(www.ohsu.edu/xd/education/library/)

- Databases – The library provides access to more than 100 databases in the health sciences and the basic sciences. Many of these databases are available free to all. Others are available to the public only on campus. A link on the databases page lists those databases that are free to everyone.
- Journals – All electronic journals are available to anyone within the library, but only accessible off campus by OHSU affiliated faculty, staff and students. A list of free electronic journals is available at <http://atoz.ebsco.com/titles.asp?Id=sfohs&sid=216520571&TabID=2>. Photocopies of articles are available for a fee.
- Electronic resources – E-Reference is an online reference library available to everyone and is available at www.ohsu.edu/xd/education/library/research-assistance/reference.cfm

- Consumer health – This is a collection of links to health information for nonprofessionals. It's a great place for basic health information and includes links specifically selected for students, including one for young women (www.ohsu.edu/xd/education/library/research-assistance/reference.cfm) and young men (www.ohsu.edu/xd/education/library/research-assistance/consumer-health/young-mens-health.cfm). The Consumer Health web page is at www.ohsu.edu/xd/education/library/research-assistance/consumer-health/young-mens-health.cfm

Ask A Librarian

- OHSU reference librarians answer most online questions within 24 hours.
